

The Lord's My Light

PSALM 27

1. The Lord's my light, my Sav - ior dear. In Him my heart is stayed.
2. One thing have I de - sired of Him, For this one thing I yearn:
3. Hear me, O Lord; I cry a - loud! Be gra - cious— an - swer me!
4. Teach me Your won - drous way, O Lord, And lead me in Your path:

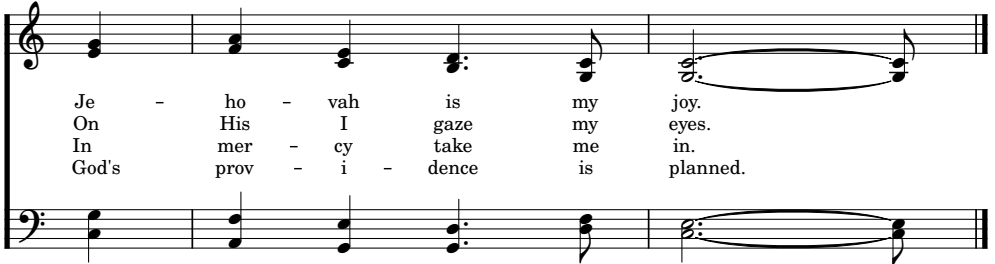

My ref - uge strong; whom shall I fear? Why should I be a - fraid?
To gaze on Him with eyes un - dimmed, In - to His house re - turn.
I seek You, Lord! My heart is bowed; Hide not Your face from me.
False wit - ness - es have stored up lies And har - bored sin - ful wrath.

When en - e - mies at - tack my flesh To con - quer and des - troy,
The Lord will hide me in His home When trou - ble shall a - rise,
Turn not Your face of an - ger here, Tho' I am full of sin!
I soon shall see God's good - ness there With - in the liv - ing land.

In this my heart will be re - freshed: Je - ho - vah is my joy,
For from the Lord I find sha - lom; On Him I gaze my eyes,
Cast not me off, but keep me near; In mer - cy take me in,
Wait, wait, my soul; do not de - spair! God's prov - i - dence is planned,

Je - ho - vah is my joy.
On His I gaze my eyes.
In mer - cy take me in.
God's prov - i - dence is planned.
